

This week

saturday
03
20.01.2018

we recommend you..

TONIGHT

JAN 20

Buy.. a ticket for first weekend of Celtic Connections. Tonight, Skerryvore, above, and We Banjo 3 are at the Barrowland, Julie Fowlis and Muireann Nic Amhlaobh are at City Halls, The Johnstone Pipe Band celebrate their 75th birthday at the Royal Concert Hall and The National Whisky Festival will showcase Scotland's water of life at SWG3 from noon.

MONDAY

JAN 22-27

Applaud..
Emmerdale actor John Middleton, left, who played Vicar Ashley Thomas for 20 years, as he makes his UK touring stage debut as Detective Arthur Gerard in Strangers on a Train at the Theatre Royal, Glasgow. Other cast members include Call the Midwife's Jack Ashton and Mr Selfridge star Hannah Tointon.

TUESDAY

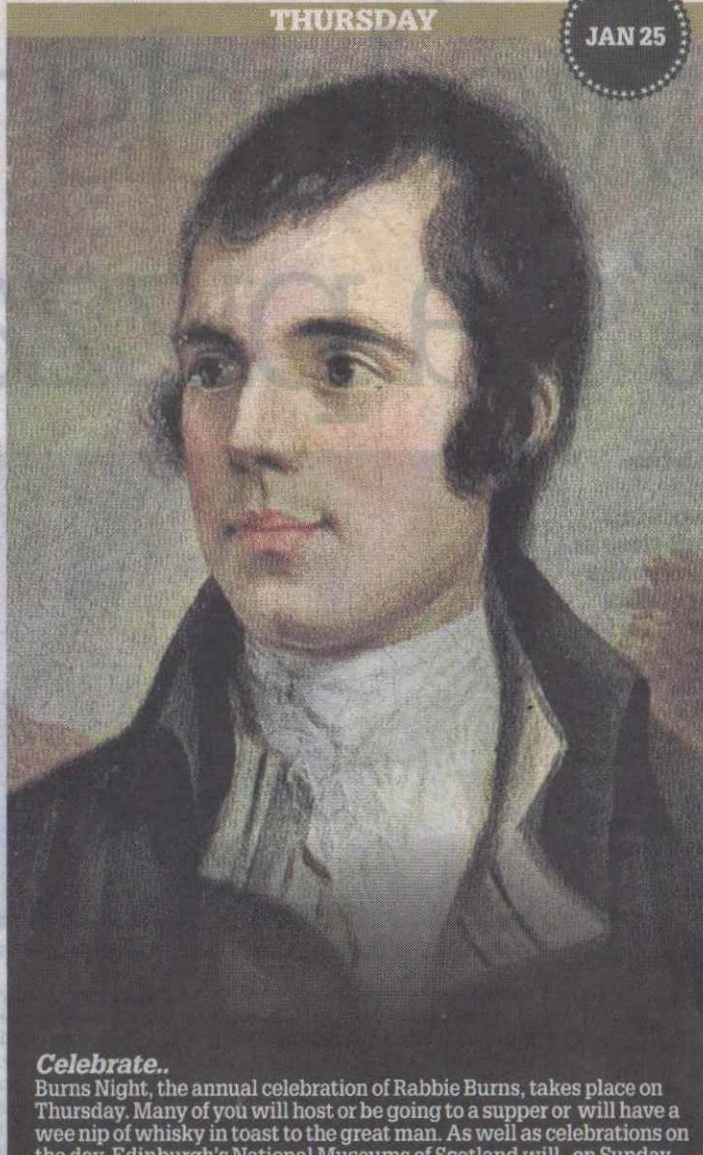

JAN 23-27

Admit.. some of your favourite things are in The Sound of Music

THURSDAY

JAN 25

Celebrate..

Burns Night, the annual celebration of Rabbe Burns, takes place on Thursday. Many of you will host or be going to a supper or will have a wee nip of whisky in toast to the great man. As well as celebrations on the day, Edinburgh's National Museums of Scotland will, on Sunday,

WEDNESDAY

JAN 23

Laugh.. yourself dizzy as Hollywood funnyman Chris Rock plays The SSE Hydro, Glasgow. Expect lots of Trump-bashing from Chris who, as well as appearing in films like Grown Ups and Down to Earth and creating TV sitcom Everybody Hates Chris, is a seasoned stand-up.

THURSDAY

JAN 25 - MAR 3

Check.. out the likes of Greg Moodie's X-Ray Specs wearing Burns, which is part of Burns Unbroke at Summerhall in Edinburgh. The programme, which reinterprets Burns and his work, features over 30 visual artists, new work by four Scottish-based artists, music and kids' shows.

FRIDAY

JAN 19

Watch..
Early Man, the new stop-motion animated comedy from the makers of Wallace and Gromit and Chicken Run. Set in pre-historic times, it features the voice of Eddie Redmayne as caveman Dug, who has to unite his tribe to save their

