

Inherent Vice, Edinburgh Filmhouse, Tuesday.

To celebrate the upcoming release of The Phantom Thread, Filmhouse is screening all five of director Paul Thomas Anderson's previous films on 35mm. We have a particular penchant for this woozy, hippy era private eye flick, an adaptation of the Thomas Pynchon novel, starring Joaquin Phoenix.

ART

As Others See Him, Summerhall, Edinburgh, from Thursday

As part of Summerhall's Burns Unbroke festival, a new exhibition of portraits of the bard by the cream of the UK's contemporary art scene opens on Thursday at Summerhall. It includes this one by David Mach. Jake and Dinos Chapman, Calum Colvin and Douglas Gordon are among the other artists on show.

MUSIC

Shawn Colvin and her Band – 'A Few Small Repairs', Concert Hall

Now that Celtic Connections is on us Glasgow is positively hoaching with definitely need to see though? Well, as many of them as you can, obviously, can we point you in the direction of Americana star Shawn Colvin? Colvin is one of the best singers she's ever heard. What more endorsement
