

BY NADINE MCBAY

FESTIVALS

WHAT'S HAPPENING?

RUNNING from January 25 to March 10 at Summerhall in Edinburgh is Burns Unbroke, a multi-arts festival celebrating contemporary art and performance in Scotland as reflected through the life and work of Robert Burns. The festival's first weekend features a live programme from poets and musicians including Rachel Sermanni, above, David Mach, Andy Cannon, Wendy Weatherby, Flint & Pitch, Liz Lochhead and arts collective NEU! REEKIE! A programme of talks and events will run throughout the six weeks of the visual arts programme, which features work from Douglas Gordon, Laura Graham, Adrian Wiszniewski, Calum Colvin and The National's cartoonist Greg Moodie.

January 25 to March 10,

Summerhall, Edinburgh, free.

Prices, dates and times of events at www.burnsunbroke.co.uk www.summerhall.co.uk

www.summerhall.co.uk